

HOSTED BY STUDENTS FROM SHIBUYA, TOKYO

UKRAINE × JAPAN STUDENT FORUM

July 30, 2022 2PM-6PM (JST) on Zoom

Our Message:

Dear students from Ukraine,
Let us listen to your words. How the Russian invasion of Ukraine changed your lives. Your opinions on this situation. What you want to convey to society.
We want to understand your thoughts and discuss how we can support Ukraine.
This forum will provide a place where students from Ukraine and Japan can freely do so.

Target audience:

Students from Ukraine and Japan between the ages of 12-19 (students from overseas may participate)

Language: English/Japanese

Application deadline: July 22, 2022

Further details and application form:

<https://forum-ua-jp.com>

Only students can join the discussions, but anyone who is interested can view the forum online.

Program:

- 1:45 p.m. Forum on Zoom is accessible to participants
- 2:00 p.m. Opening speech and overview of the Ukrainian situation by the forum organizers
- 2:15 p.m. Keynote speech by Mr. Bogdan Parkhomenko and Q&A
- 3:00 p.m. Speech by Ukrainian students
- 3:20 p.m. Discussion by students in Japanese/ English speaking groups (Part one: Support in Ukraine)
- 4:20 p.m. Further discussion by students in groups (Part two: Action plans to help Ukraine)
- 5:30 p.m. Presentations by each discussion group
- 5:55 p.m. Closing speech by the forum organizers
- 6:00 p.m. Optional Meetup (up to 7:00 p.m.)

Above time is in Japan Standard Time (JST)*

Twitter:

Instagram:

Guest Speaker: Mr. Bogdan Parkhomenko

Mr. Parkhomenko communicates the current situation and issues of the Russian invasion of Ukraine from Kyiv through social media and TV. Through donations from Japan, he also directly supports citizens in Ukraine. Mr. Parkhomenko had lived in Japan until high school. He is the founder of SEPA LLC.

If you have any questions, please contact us at forum.ukrainejapan@gmail.com